Mission statement: The Roar's mission is to consistently provide Warsaw Community High School and the surrounding community with compelling content that is passionately crafted through hard work in a professional environment focused on its audience.

MESSAGE IN A BOTTLE

Dear Erin Leinbach,

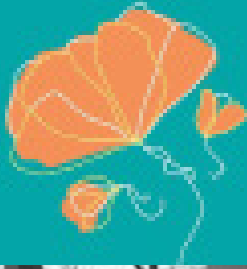

Coming into high school I was at a tough spot in life, I was still a child, and I had little to no direction in life. You were the only teacher at the high school I really connected with and I want to thank you for the way you've always been there for me; not just as a teacher but as a friend. You helped me find a sense of purpose and be myself no matter what. Even when I messed up sometimes you stuck by my side and I appreciated every moment of it.

Sincerely,
Konner

Erin Leinbach,

I've known you since I was a little kid. You have been such a nurturing and accepting role model and teacher. You are so loving and forgiving and you are everything that I aspire to be. You helped me to grow as a person, and I have loved being in newspaper so much. Thank you for always believing in me and making me feel at home.

Love,
Sydney

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

RACHEL DEMPSEY

important things that happened to Rachel while in high school happened during her freshman year. Her dad got diagnosed with stage three colon cancer.

This was super hard for her because she had to change a lot of things going on in her life. Her dad was no longer able to work, so she had to leave her small private high school and come to this huge public high school where she didn't really know anyone. This was very difficult for her, but now she loves Warsaw and is so glad that she switched schools.

Rachel has experienced a lot since she moved to WCHS, however she says "The most impactful thing for me has been the teachers and their support here at the high school. The first teacher I ever met here was Mr. Riege, and even now I still have an amazing connection with him. He helped me through two years of Chemistry 1 and 2 even though I had no idea what I was doing most of the time. He always helped me with a smile on his face and I am so grateful for that." Rachel wants the underclassmen to know that they should have fun in high school, get their work done, and get good grades. Her most important advice, though, is to have fun! "We are starting to grow up, but we're still kids... so make the most of it and have the most fun possible!" Rachel will be attending medical school and she will do amazing at whatever school she picks.

Rachel Dempsey is a senior at WCHS. Some interesting things she would like the school to know about her is that she doesn't eat dairy or pork, simply because she doesn't like them. Macaroni and cheese, bacon, and popcorn are foods she can't stand. Rachel has one sibling, Beth, who is ten years older than her and her best friend in the world. Rachel has been involved in the school's speech team for 3 years, and she made it to state this school year. She has also been active in the Optimist Speech Contest and has placed in the top two both years she has competed.

After high school, Rachel plans to go to college for medical school and use her degree to do missionary work in other countries. One of the most

7 THINGS I LEARNED IN HIGH SCHOOL

FRIEND GROUPS ARE GOING TO CHANGE

Losing freinds is painful, but the people who are in your life are meaningful, even if they don't stick around forever. Going to college can be rough, because there's a good chance that you are going to be moving a few hours away from your friends. You can always keep old friends, but it is important to remember that there are new friends to be made around you. New friends don't mean you have to forget the old ones.

OPEN-MINDEDNESS IS THE BEST WAY TO MAKE FRIENDS

Even the most passionate of people are capable of listening to and hearing the other side. People who have crazy theories or silly ideas often just want to be heard, and even if you don't end up agreeing with them, you can still make an easy ally by being someone they know they can talk to about their passions. You might learn something.

IT'S WORTH IT TO PUT YOURSELF OUT THERE

It can be very hard to put yourself out in the world for everyone to see, but despite how scary it is, there is a low chance that you are going to be affected by the outcome of embarrassing yourself. If you stumble over your words or say something silly, your brain is going to care about it way more than anyone else is. And if nothing goes wrong, putting yourself out there is how to make new friends or gain new experiences.

GRADES ARE NOT EV- ERYTHING

For all my overachievers out there, you don't have to freak out for every assignment. Sometimes you just can't get an assignment done. Give it your best, but your mental and physical well-being is the most important thing.

WEAR WHATEVER YOU WANT

You can wear whatever you want if it makes you feel good. Your outfits should fall into the three C's: Confidence, comfort, and choice. Your clothes should be AT LEAST one of the three C's. If your outfit isn't comfortable, doesn't make you feel confident, or isn't your choice, go change. Whatever you're wearing should make you feel 100%, authentically you.

PASSION IS COOL

Apathy may be a way to seem cool, but being passionate about something you love isn't something to be ashamed of. Be proud of the things that make you happy and the things that make you unique.

YOU ARE GOING TO DISAPPOINT YOUR PAR- ENTS

Whether it is a tattoo, a bad grade, or a career path they don't believe in, you are your own person, and you choose your life. Your parents cannot control you forever, so don't freak out when they are upset at something you do. Listen to their guidance if they have your best interests in mind, but in the end, your life is meant to be lived by you, mistakes and all.

I AM SERIOUSLY SO PROUD OF THIS AMAZING GROUP OF KIDDOS AND EXCITED FOR ALL OF THEIR NEXT JOURNEYS! - MRS. GOUGH

THE SENIORS I HAVE WORKED WITH HAVE SHOWN EXTREME GROWTH AND HAVE BEEN GOOD LEADERS. I HAVE BEEN ABLE TO WORK WITH MOST OF THEM ALL FOUR YEARS OF HIGH SCHOOL. SO TO BE ABLE TO SEE THEIR JOURNEY IS ONE OF THE BEST PARTS OF TEACHING. WORKING ON PLAY PRODUCTIONS IS AN INTENSE PROCESS AND IT WAS ENCOURAGING TO SEE THEIR COMMITMENT TO HARD WORK AND EXCELLENCE. -MS. MCAFFEE

RANDOM GOOGLE MEETS WITH CLASSES DURING THE COVID QUARANTINE BECAUSE WE WERE ALL STARVED FOR HUMAN INTERACTION OUTSIDE OF OUR FAMILIES. YES WE TALKED ABOUT SCHOOL, BUT WE ALSO TALKED ABOUT SHOWS AND MOVIES WE WERE WATCHING. WE MET EACH OTHER'S DOGS AND CATS AND LIZARDS! EVERYONE WAS ALSO ALWAYS SNACKING!
LOVE, MRS. LEINBACH

“ WOW, WHAT A GREAT CLASS! THEY HAVE GROWN SO MUCH OVER THE LAST FOUR YEARS AND I HAVE REALLY ENJOYED WORKING WITH THEM AGAIN. THEY ARE GOING OFF INTO THE WORLD AND GIVE ME HOPE THAT THEY WILL DO GREAT THINGS. MUCH LOVE AND I WILL MISS YOU SO MUCH.
-MRS. LOVE

I STILL MISS HAVING THIS CLASS! YOU GUYS WERE SO GOOD AT DISCUSSION - ESPECIALLY IN TUESDAYS WITH MORRIE AND EVEN THE ILIAD! I EXPECT TO HEAR GREAT THINGS ABOUT YOUR FUTURES :)
- MRS JOHNSTON (AKA - MS. MOSSI)

I ENJOYED BEING A PART OF YOUR LIVES THESE PAST FOUR YEARS. I FELT LIKE A SECOND MOM TO MANY OF YOU. I WILL MISS SEEING YOUR FACE IN MY CLASSROOM NEXT YEAR. ALTHOUGH MY HEART IS SAD TO SEE YOU GO, I'M PROUD OF YOU AND EXCITED FOR THE NEXT STEP IN YOUR JOURNEY. I HOPE YOU STAY IN TOUCH.
LOVE, MAMA DINSE

IT IS HARD TO BELIEVE THAT IT HAS BEEN OVER A YEAR SINCE STUDENTS ACROSS THE WORLD WENT INTO ISOLATION FROM SCHOOL AND LIFE DUE TO A PANDEMIC. WARSAW'S SENIOR CLASS HAS LEARNED NOT ONLY HOW TO FACE A PANDEMIC, NAVIGATE THROUGH IT, AND SURVIVE, BUT ALSO HOW TO THRIVE AND EXCEL! IN AUGUST, THE SENIOR CLASS WAS NOT SURE WHAT THE YEAR WOULD HOLD AND WHETHER THEY WOULD EXPERIENCE A "NORMAL" YEAR WITH ALL OF THE EXPERIENCES THAT MAKE THE SENIOR YEAR SPECIAL. AS WE REFLECT ON A CRAZY SENIOR YEAR, WE CAN SEE WE MADE IT THROUGH THIS PANDEMIC AND ALL THE CONTACT TRACING, SOCIAL DISTANCING, SANITIZING, AND CURVEBALLS THAT CAME OUR WAY. WE WILL HAVE PROM AND WILL GRADUATE TOGETHER. WE ARE STRONGER AND ARE FINISHING WITH GREAT HOPE FOR THE FUTURE. WE ARE RESILIENT! -MRS. MCCOLLOM

WHAT THE

Staff HAD TO SAY

Senior Year Advice

The best advice is to stay focused, and you can do anything you put your mind to because this is the most important year of highschool. My freshman year I goofed around and got expelled from school, and it fell back on me. I had to make up all those credits to graduate at the end of my 4 years. When I say it wasn't easy, but I still managed to graduate early. I just wanna say stay focused and set goals for yourself they help.

just keep swimming

Have fun and take your time in your senior year.

Try to enjoy every moment and make as many memories as you can because it really does go by fast.

Stop doing things for the benefit and approval of others.

Don't slack off this year, it's the most important.
SIGN UP FOR SCHOLARSHIPS AND GRANTS NOW.

Don't get into relationships, they're messy.

Do not care what other people think. You will probably never see them again.

Time really does move fast. Enjoy it while you can!

Make sure to show up and get your work done. You may have senioritis like I do and you don't want to do anything but your best bet is to just get it over with. have fun and make the most of your time.

High school flies by so fast, so do not take any of the memories you make inside and outside the classroom for granted.

Enjoy everything you can. Go to every get together and every event and make the most of every situation because it really does fly by just like everyone has told you from the beginning. And if you don't know what you want to do, that's okay. Take your time, and things will figure themselves out.

stop caring about what other people think about you, don't give them the power.

Don't procrastinate and apply for all the colleges you want to. It's better to try and get rejected than not apply at all. The worst things that can happen is they say no thanks.

Senioritis kicks your butt, just stay on top of your work and don't let this place be why you have depression.

Keep to yourself because sometimes it's not worth the drama people bring.

Savor your senior year. It goes by so fast and then everything changes. It's your last time with a lot of people you'll never see again. Very bitter-sweet. Also do a co-op so you don't have to stay at school the whole day.

Do what makes you happy and don't let others make you feel bad for being yourself.

Don't start skipping, then you can't stop.

Enjoy the last sporting events of high school, and dig into career pathways and get hands-on experience!

Do what you want, no what your friends want.

In life there are many opportunities take them while you can life goes by way too fast

Don't worry about things you can't control. Stay patient, positive and kind, pursuing your dreams no matter how difficult they might seem.

Don't stress. Be yourself. Do great in school. Don't fall in the wrong crowd. Know who your true friends are.

Don't let the community force you to choose a path they think is acceptable.

you're only a senior once so do everything you love twice

It's gonna be tough, just grind it out and do your absolute best. Make sure you prioritize your work but still give yourself some time for self care, you deserve it. Go to prom! Take that chance on things you wouldn't normally do. One day you'll look back and you don't want to regret anything. Also, SCHOLARSHIPS=FREE MONEY!

Get as many required classes as you can out of the way before your senior year. This will allow you to have a relaxed and fun senior year that's less stressful! It allowed me to do the Co-app program and I get to work half the school day.

Do your homework and don't vape in the bathroom

Wing it.

Don't be afraid to take risks and although life and growing up may seem scary that's ok. always remember who you are and who you want to be. if you have a passion don't let roadblocks stop you from fulfilling that passion, risks and believing you can do anything is what helped me come out of my shell, and you can too...

Do as much as you can. Make as many memories as possible. Go to football games, school dances, hang out with friends. This is your year to do all that you haven't yet and want to do!

Cherish the moments.

Do the fafs early.

Don't regret things that you never got to do. Your unique experience will help you on your journey; just listen to your soul

Advice For Freshmen And Sophomores

Alex Bright

Hello All! This goes out to all the Freshman and Sophomores, this is either your first year of high school or second year. All of you may be thinking or stressing about what to do after high school whether it is college, trade, or plan working right away. All of which is okay and are exceptional options to do, however- Don't stress out just yet!! You have all the time in the world. Use the time you have to take classes that interest you, if you have an idea of what you want to do after high school, the school most likely offers classes to take in the field or occupation you are interested in. WCHS offers an initiative called the 4 year plan, and no its not communism!

This initiative offers a plan to follow a career pathway based on the elective classes you take. Now this plan provides a sure fire way to graduate if you cannot pass the ISTEP. However the 4 year plan doesn't work for some people like it does others, and if you are one of those people that is okay! Career plans change, interests change and that is to be expected.

Some tips for those who are lost on what they want to do: don't feel scared to talk to your grade level counselor, after all they are responsible for class schedules, tell them your interests and classes that intrigue you. Better yet if you want to add some diversity to your class schedule, go to powerschool and look at the course catalogue.

WCHS offers a wide array of classes and most of them could possibly line up in the future occupation you want! All of you are still young and filled with so much potential to be great. Working right out of High-school will have you stuck in a cycle of making money to buy things but then having to work to make more money to buy more things that you want. Seek out a trade, if you are a hands on person, then trades are perfect for you. Each and every single one of you has the means to be the best you can be through your own design and no one else's.

You are in the prime of your lives, and the best years of your lives. Do yourself the favor of expanding your brains to learn new knowledge, all of you are the future. Don't limit yourself to the people around you, you are who you hang out with.

Some advice for all of you:

- Don't be scared to ask questions or for help.
- Be outgoing, highschool is to make memories, leave your mark!
- Don't procrastinate...it never ends well.
- Always look for opportunities to expand your skills and knowledge.
- Take as many electives as you can to see what you like.

Highschool can be very stressful, schoolwork, homelife, and then if you have a job on top of that. You could possibly feel like you don't have all the time in the world to get things done that you want to get done. That is perfectly okay, we are all people too who have hobbies, and friends, and lives that we want to live to the fullest.

Now a piece of Senior advice I can give you is that focus on school, no matter what. If you have a lot of homework don't be afraid to call your boss and tell them that you need to work on homework. Work will always be there, your grades won't be. Maintain your GPA, your grades and most importantly, your mental health.

Highschool can be very draining, we all know that and it is even worse when you have extra things on your plate. All of you are young so don't waste time to get your grades to a good spot and keep them there, then go get a job if you want.

Remember, all of you can be amazing, and the future to make new and amazing inventions, cures, medicines, cars, whatever you want to put your mind to. You can achieve it.

Do you have an interest in serving in the Military? Are you interested in becoming part of the world's finest fighting force? Do you want to unlock and find a new part of yourself you never thought there was, to become resilient, stronger physically and mentally? Come stop in at the Marine Recruiting Office at!! 2608 Sheldon St, Warsaw, IN 46582. PT is at 5 PM on Mondays every Monday, come see us and get a feel for what the Marine Corps is all about!!

Editor Recap

This year has thrown many curve balls at the newspaper team and although this was a team of new staff writers they handled it amazingly. This team was full of such creative students who helped make the issues spectacular. It saddens me that covid took some great team bonding activities away, but I'm grateful I got to see this team at all. I learned a lot of new things this year as editor. For example, I now know how to use a camera! Thank you, LB.

I'm so grateful for my co-editor Jordyn Truex. Thank you for sticking with me for another year. I love brainstorming on new ideas for the Roar. You've been by my side since freshman year and I can't wait to see what comes as we finish highschool.

Thank you to all of the senior staff writers! Thank you Sydney for all your help in putting the Newspaper together and always making me laugh. Konnor you've been a part of Newspaper since I first joined and it's so crazy that you'll be gone. Thank you for all of your bizarre yet genius ideas. I'll miss your stupid jokes and people strangely believed them. No, I didn't sneeze...! Savannah, I'm grateful that you decided to join Newspaper this year. I'm gonna miss the football game without you. The same goes to you Alex! I'll miss your crazy stories during class!

And to my staff writers, Sadie, Piper, and Rae, thank you for your creativity and energy. I love talking to you all about shows and cool ideas for the newspaper. Sadie I appreciate your organization and your intelligence. Sorry that I could never finish a movie, Sadie. Thank you Rae for your dedication and helpfulness in Newspaper. Thank you Piper for all your great story ideas and I'm so excited for next year.

Lastly, I am so grateful for you LB. Thank you for all of the time and effort you put into the Newspaper to make it amazing. You're always there whenever we need a helping hand. I don't think I could make it this far without your support. I love you, LB!

I'm excited to meet the new staff writers next year and the ideas they'll have to bring. Thank you to everyone who kept on reading the issues and supported Newspaper.

We appreciate you.
See you next year!

editoⁿ recap 20-21

It's over already?

This year was our second year as co-editors, and as new juniors coming back from a pandemic, it was very interesting to say the least. I didn't know what to expect, but coming back to The Roar was what I was most excited about.

Working with the entire newspaper staff is one of my favorite things about coming to school. We get to create amazing issues together, and I love when we bounce ideas and stories off of each other. At some points, we felt limited. The pandemic put restrictions on old traditions or activities we used to have, that we couldn't do anymore. As a group we had to adapt. We found ways to still have fun, and accomplish our work to the best of our abilities.

I am so thankful for LB's guidance, as always, and especially thankful for her love for us students. She is always kind, helpful, and caring. She continues to teach us new things every day, so thank you LB.

This year flew by, and was overall pretty amazing for our staff. We were able to make 6 beautiful issues with incredible stories inside. To our staff, thanks to you all we were able to finish another year strong. I am so proud of everything we have created, and will continue to create next year. Our growth as a team is immense and so amazing.

I cannot wait until next year. We have so many more birthday parties, more pinatas, more stories, and more memories to make!
