Norman the Norman and the Very Small Duchess

Philip Ardagh

With colour illustrations by Tom Morgan-Jones

Little Gems 5-8

JUNE 2018

Another hilarious sword-swinging adventure of little hero Norman from the riotously funny comedy dream team in a full colour Little Gems package.

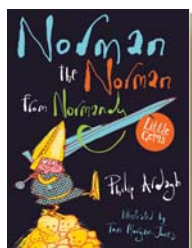

Norman the Norman is at it again! And this time the Duchess of Normandy is determined that her William should have little Norman helping with this “Conquest thingy”. After all he is Normandy’s bravest broadsword swinging hero! But can Norman even make it to the boat on time? Or are there other adventures to be had with robbers, giants, a messenger called Barry, and Matilda the very small Duchess...

Enticing combination of historical facts, supposition, slapstick humour and authorial asides. Comic genius.

- Perfect for the younger end of the 5-8 range
- Philip is a winner of the Roald Dahl Funny Prize among many other awards, and Tom is a rising illustration star contributing to the great success of Norman the Norman from Normandy
- A Little Gems dream team – the pair are a high-profile and exciting collaboration that is perfect for festivals and social media
- The acclaimed Little Gems are gorgeous first chapter books, by the cream of children’s talent, with super readable layouts and design, a chunky friendly format, high spec finishes and packed with fun extras – sales for the series are now over 350K

At 6ft 7in with a big bushy beard, favourite children’s author Philip Ardagh is a familiar sight at book festivals and events from New York to Wigtown. He has written several award-winning children’s books, including The Grubtown Tales series, which won the Roald Dahl Funny Prize.

Tom Morgan-Jones is an award winning illustrator. His work is widely and internationally published, and includes everything from illustrating children’s books and buses, to magazine design and satirical boardgames.

Mariella, Queen of the Skies

Eoin Colfer

With colour illustrations by Katy Halford

Little Gems 5-8

JUNE 2018

Super-smart inventor Mariella doesn't have time for sleep in this funny and life-affirming gem from award-winning beloved author Eoin Colfer, featuring full colour illustrations from rising star Katy Halford.

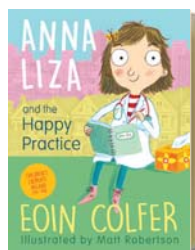

Mariella loves nothing more than inventing but bedtime keeps getting in the way of all her brilliant ideas! So when Mum and Dad won't take no for an answer there's only one thing for it... Mariella has to build a rocket-powered flying suit to zap her round the world faster than the setting sun! If anyone can outsmart sleep it's Mariella. But everyone needs sleep and without it all of Mariella's brilliant ideas might just disappear. A "how to live a happy life" tale told with humour, warmth and a loveable female protagonist.

- Eoin is an iconic writer with a massive fanbase and his profile remains high after his success as the Irish Children's Laureate (2014-2016)
- Mariella is another fantastically clever and beautifully written female character from Eoin, the perfect match for his previous Little Gems
- Featuring gorgeous full colour illustrations from rising star Katy Halford, the illustrator of the 2017 John Lewis Christmas picture book Moz the Monster
- The acclaimed Little Gems are gorgeous first chapter books, by the cream of children's talent, with super readable layouts and design, a chunky friendly format, high spec finishes and packed with fun extras – sales for the series are now over 350K!

HISTORY ADVENTURE ESCAPOLOGY AMBITION

A thrilling reimagining of Houdini's childhood years and the life that made him master of escape, from the award-winning author of The Ostrich Boys.

The year is 1885 and Erik Weisz, a penniless immigrant, has found himself in trouble again. His uncanny talent for picking locks and his gleeful showboating to match it, have earned him very few friends and a bad reputation. But this is just the beginning of his story and Erik is destined for a far more magical future. Watch as he transforms before your very eyes into the greatest showman the world has ever seen... An unexpected and timely story of rags to riches.

- In line with the current popularity of series like Young Bond and Young Sherlock, and the never-ending fascination with the mysterious Harry Houdini
- Top author: Keith is always well-reviewed and very popular in the trade and in schools. His Barrington Stoke title The Last Soldier was shortlisted for the Scottish Teenage Book Prize 2017
- Award-winning Barrington Stoke has almost 20 years' experience of publishing super readable books accessible to young people with dyslexia or reading reluctance

Keith Gray was born and brought up in Grimsby and knew from an early age that he wanted to be a writer. He has twice been shortlisted for the Guardian Fiction Prize and was shortlisted for the Booktrust Teen Prize and the Scottish Arts Council Book Award. Keith was a judge for the Blue Peter Book Award, the Guardian Fiction Prize and the Kathleen Fidler Award. His award-winning novel The Ostrich Boys was recently adapted for theatre. He lives in Austria.

DRAFT COVER ONLY

RELATED TITLE: Tales from Weird Street by Anne Fine
978-1-78112-572-4

8+ FICTION • JUNE 2018

SPOOKINESS GHOSTS FRIENDS WEIRD

Three more sharp, unnerving tales told with all of Anne Fine's trademark eye for drama and suspense. Perfect to thrill and chill.

Asim, Laila and Tom like nothing more than spooking each other out with tales of the unexpected. This summer they're back with three more stories to chill you to the bone. Can your dreams really grant you fortunes and riches? What lurks in the shadows of Number 17? And is Grandma's house really haunted, or is it all just a fun imaginary game? Get ready to head back to Weir(d) Street. It's time for more tales of terror and woe...

- Top author – Anne is a former UK Children's Laureate and twice Carnegie Medallist, with great profile across the trade, libraries and educational markets
- Consistent author-illustrator pairing and strong branding across both Weird Street books and Anne's other Barrington Stoke titles makes for an on-trend and commercial look
- Praise for Tales from Weird Street: “masterclass in storytelling” – The Booktrust; “these stories...will stay with readers for far longer than the time it takes to read them” – Andrea Reece
- Award-winning Barrington Stoke has almost 20 years' experience of publishing super readable books accessible to young people with dyslexia or reading reluctance

Anne Fine was the second UK Children's Laureate and has won numerous awards including the Carnegie Medal twice, for Goggle Eyes and Flour Babies. She has written many children's classics, perhaps most famously Madame Doubtfire. In 2003 she was awarded an OBE. She lives in County Durham.

TATTOOS ART LOVE BETRAYAL

A strange tattoo triggers a surprising turn of events in this tense contemporary drama from master teen writer, Bernard Ashley.

Sofia Drake wants a tattoo – a tattoo all of her own, where her parents won't see it. And when she's introduced to Sol Marks, a genius young tattooist, Sofia falls in love with his arty, original designs. But when Sofia's dad sees his daughter's new body art his reaction sets in motion a series of events no one could have anticipated.

An enticingly original contemporary story of art, love and the power of creativity.

- Top author – Bernard has won numerous awards including the prolific Other Award and several of his titles have been highly commended runners-up for the Carnegie Medal
- Renowned for his award-winning teenage fiction, this is a return to Bernard's forte
- Bernard was inspired by the life, work, and creativity of his grandson, a successful tattoo artist
- Award-winning Barrington Stoke has almost 20 years' experience of publishing super readable books accessible to young people with dyslexia or reading reluctance

Bernard Ashley worked for thirty years as a head teacher before he became a full-time writer for children. His debut novel, The Trouble with Donovan Croft, won The Other Award, and it and a number of his other stories have been issued by OUP in their Children's Modern Classics series. He lives in London.

Skyward: The Story of Female Pilots in WWII

SALLY DENG

The year is 1927, and in America, England and Russia, three young girls share a dream: to fly. But it won't be easy...

Against the odds, Hazel, Marlene and Lilya follow their hearts, enrolling in pilot courses (sometimes in secret) and eventually flying for their countries in World War II. Follow the adventures of these young women as they battle not only enemies in the skies but sexism and inequality in their own teams. Risking their lives countless times in feats of incredible bravery, the female air pilots of the Second World War are honoured in this beautiful book, illustrated in Sally Deng's raw, dynamic style.

KEY SELLING POINTS

- An exciting, empowering book that shows young girls they can achieve their dreams, featuring three main characters that are based on real women.
- Provides readers with historical background on WWII and the airforce.
- Sally Deng is an award-winning, rising talent in the illustration world. This will be her first book.

Boats: Fast & Slow

IRIS VOLANT & JAROM VOGEL

The history of boats is intertwined with our own – since the earliest times, humans have found ways to cross the bodies of water that cut them off from further exploration and expansion. From the woven rafts of ancient Mesopotamia, to Native American log canoes, through to Dutch merchant ships and onwards to today's modern sailing hydrofoils, trace the fascinating story of boats and their place in our culture.

KEY SELLING POINTS

- The follow-on title from Horses: Wild and Tame, this elegantly illustrated non-fiction book explores thousands of years of boat making and technological advancement as well as the significance of famous boats from legends and history.
- An extra-curricular educational book that links to Key Stage 2 studies of history, geography and culture.
- Jarom Vogel is an exciting, up-and-coming young artist. This will be his second book with Flying Eye.

TITLE INFORMATION

Stephanie Blake's passion for writing and illustrating began in childhood when she created books for her brothers and sisters as birthday presents. As a child, she also fell in love with the books of Dr. Seuss, Ludwig Bemelmans, and William Steig. After moving to France, she discovered other writers and artists whose work continued to inspire her stories and drawings. She is the author and illustrator of dozens of highly successful books in France, many of them children's favourites.

A witty, thought-provoking gift book about keeping life simple

WHY I CHOSE THIS BOOK

"This is a small book about a big question! A mini hardback for all ages that celebrates a good life" Julia Marshall, Publisher

SALES POINTS

- Beautifully illustrated in watercolour and ink
- Perfect small gift (especially great for mums)
- Sold almost 300,000 in Germany, translated into eleven languages
- Jutta Bauer won the prestigious 2010 Hans Christian Andersen Illustrator Award

BLURB

Selma is asked: What is happiness?

She says: Happiness is eating a little grass at sunrise, playing with the children until lunchtime, doing a little exercise after lunch, a little more grass, a chat with her neighbour Mrs Miller in the evening and then a lovely long sleep.

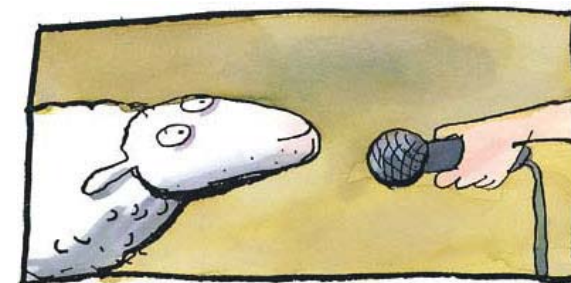

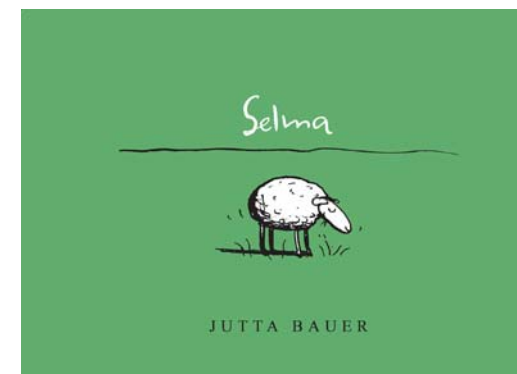

If she had more time? She would eat a little grass in the morning, play with the children until lunchtime, do a little exercise after lunch, eat a little more grass, chat with her neighbour Mrs Miller in the evening and then have a lovely long sleep.

And if she won a million dollars? She would eat a little grass...

REVIEWS

'A lovely parable of contentment, which will ring a delighted echo from the hearts of mothers of all ages' Magpies magazine

'Selma is a really really funny book... I loved this book, and have read it lots of times. It's easy to read in bed because it's so little.'

Spelling Stations Pupil and Ticket Book - Year 1

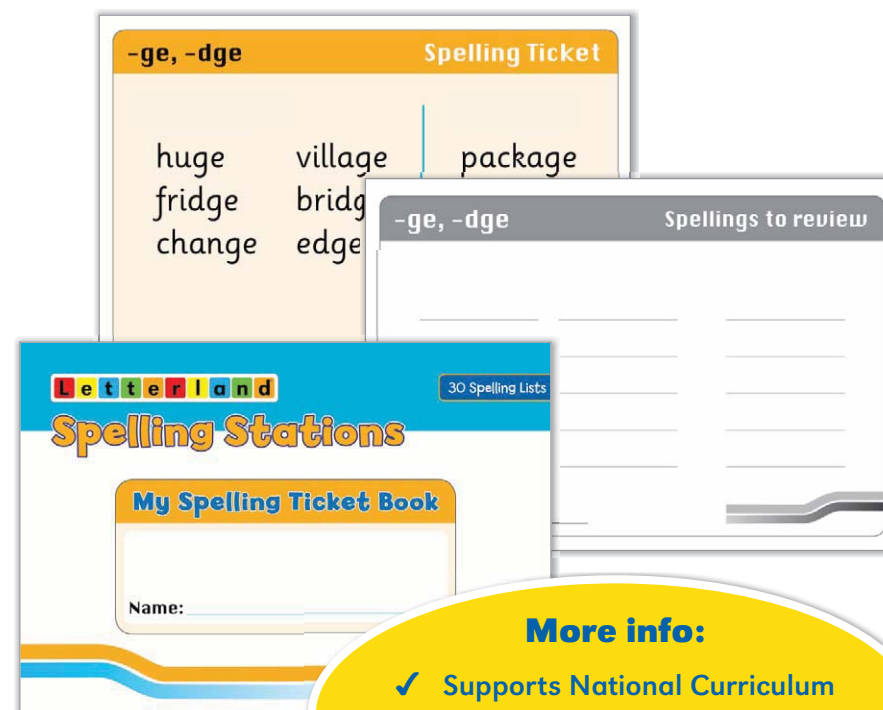

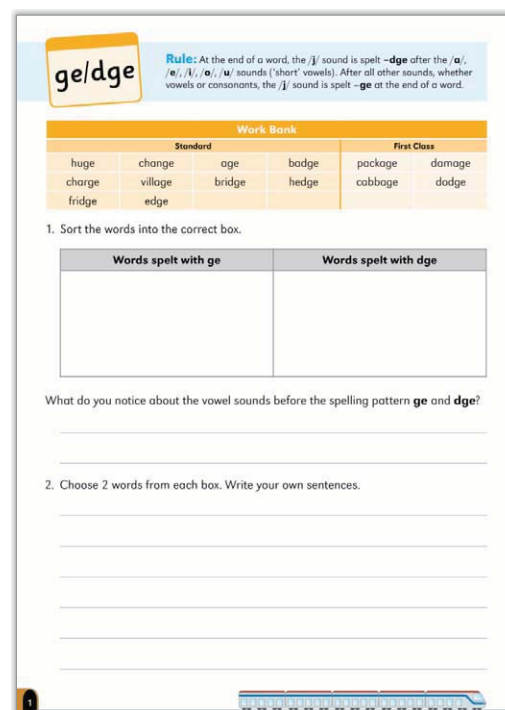

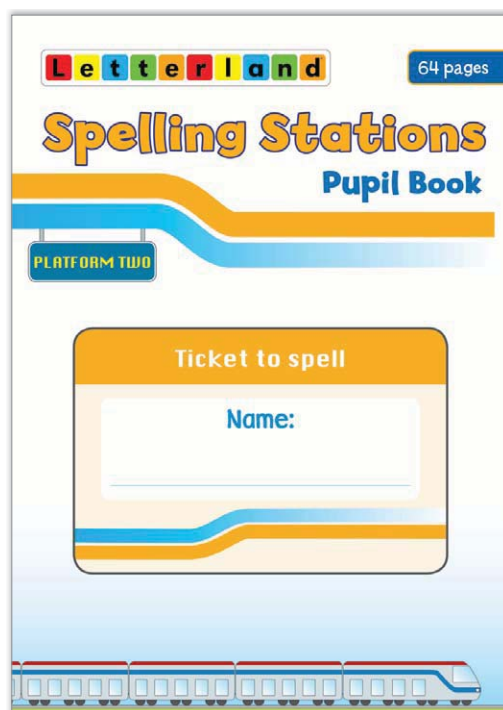

As your students use this Pupil Book they will be visiting lots of interesting 'Spelling Stations'. For example, at 'Field Farm' students will learn about using the 'ei' and 'ar' digraphs. When they have been on this spelling journey their spatial memory will help them to recall the spelling rules - giving your students a form of 'mind palace' for spelling.

A weekly spelling test should be fun. By providing each student with a book of tickets to refer to in school or at home they can keep a clear record of their spelling progress. Remember to keep a look out for the Ticket Master - they will be checking your spelling tickets!

Bumpfizzle the Best on Planet Earth by Patricia Forde, ill. by Elina Braslina

Plot Summary

Bumpfizzle is an alien, sent to Earth from Planet Plonk on a research mission. Or is he really just a ten-year-old boy who is feeling a bit disgruntled at all the attention his parents are lavishing on The Baby? It is up to readers to make up their own minds.

Either way, Bumpfizzle's confusion at Earthling behaviours, as reported in his diary and his frequent reports back to Plonk, are hilarious, and his adventures are ridiculous, from eating the cat's food (it makes him throw up, always good for attention) to biting his teacher (to check if humans would make a good source of food for Plonkers) and attempting to sacrifice a goat (he soon discovers what goats' horns are for).

“ It was The Baby's birthday and he was celebrating the number one. He is now one Earth winter old. This must be a very important number because they put it everywhere, even on their food. Not happy with that, they then made a ceremonial fire on top of the cake and sang to the number. Very strange. ”

Price: £6.99

Format: 180 x 180mm cased BB
with flaps

Pages: 14pp

ISBN: 9781788002332

A funny, lift-the-flap board book with retro-cool illustrations

- Lift the flaps to find the animal characters as you help Lois search for her friend, Bob
- Quirky animal names, a conversational text and retro artwork combine to give this gentle series both humour and mid-century style
- Aimed squarely at the child reader, but with enough charm to amuse the adult companion, too

Extract:

This is Lois. She's looking for her friend Bob at the museum. Is that Bob, behind the sign? No, that's Howard. Good morning, Howard!

Description:

All little readers will love helping Lois search for her friend, Bob, behind the big, bold flaps, and meeting their friends along the way.

Editor says:

'We had a great time thinking up names for the characters in this book, and as a result it's a joy to read aloud – try it in a fifties' American accent, just for fun!

WHAT DOES AN ANTEATER EAT?

Ross Collins
Pub Date: 7th June 2018
Age: 3+
RRP: £11.99
Format: 270 x 270mm HB
Extent: 32pp
ISBN: 9781788002646

The anteater is very hungry, but what on earth do anteaters eat?

- Another fantastic picture book title from Ross Collins, author of There's a Bear on My Chair – winner of the inaugural Amnesty CILIP Honour, and shortlisted for the CILIP Kate Greenaway Medal 2016, with over 37,000 copies sold to date! – and This Zoo is Not for You (“funny but heartfelt and a little bit rock’n’roll” – Guardian)
- With a host of lovable animal characters and a fantastically funny ending

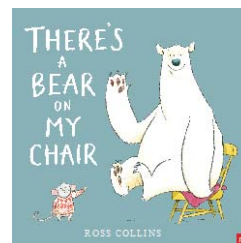

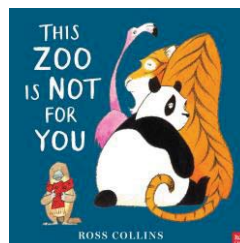

Description:

Anteater is hungry, but he has completely forgotten what anteaters eat. Baffled and tummy rumbling, he consults the other animals. But Sloth is too busy, Toucan is clueless, and Crocodile has his own mouth full. Whatever will Anteater do? It isn't until the ants all run for their lives that Anteater remembers what he should be eating... bananas, of course! A delightfully silly tale that little ones will return to again and again.

Editor says:

“The simplest picture books are often the toughest of all but Ross has done it again with effortless ease. Brimming with humour and a cast of hilarious characters, this is a book that delivers the perfect punchline ending.”

Ross Collins

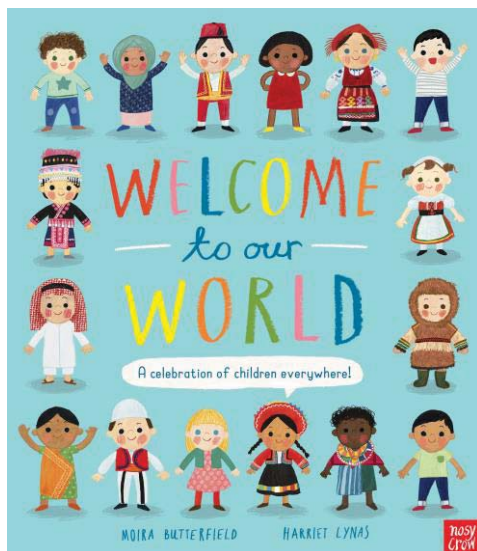

Lives In: Glasgow
 Ross' primary 1 teacher, Mrs Spears, told his parents that he should go to art school. 13 years went by until he was finally 'old enough' to get into the Glasgow School of Art. Can you believe that? – 13 years. On graduating he won the Macmillan Prize for his first picture book. Since then he's illustrated over 100 books for children and written a few of them too. Several of them have won enormous glittering awards which he keeps in a box in Latvia. Ross' book The Elephant was recently adapted into a critically acclaimed play by those clever people at the National Theatre who made that 'War Horse' thing. When he's not creating children's books he enjoys working on character development for animation studios like Laika and Disney. He also likes walking in the Scottish glens with his dog Hugo, who is an idiot and his partner Jacqui, who is not.

- Full of surprising and fun facts about children around the world
- Delightfully friendly-yet-stylish artwork by exciting new illustration talent, Harriet Lynas
- A unique, warm-hearted book to help teach children understanding, harmony and respect

Extract:

We all wake up to see the same sun and breathe the same air. We do eat different breakfast, though. Which one of these international breakfast dishes would you like best?

Description:

Children all over the world are very different, but they also have much in common. In this beautifully illustrated book, young children can learn about what people in other countries eat, wear and play, and how they speak and celebrate. From breakfast to birthdays, cakes to clothes, and hiccups to hellos, there are so many ways to say and do things – but everyone shares a love of family, friends, food and fun. This delightful book teaches us that despite different language, customs and traditions, it really is a small world, after all.

Editor says:

"This book is all about introducing children to new cultures and getting them to imagine life in someone else's shoes. And there couldn't be a more appropriate time for it!"

Hannah Alice

Lives in: Finland

Hannah Alice is an illustrator from the UK who currently lives in Finland. She works in an old factory across the lake from her home with her lurcher Eli. In the summer they take the bridge to the studio, but in winter the lake freezes so they take the shortcut across the ice. Hannah loves the natural world, textures, music, people, documentaries, facts, functionality, and working with wood, and she finds herself combining those interests to create projects for all sorts of lovely people.

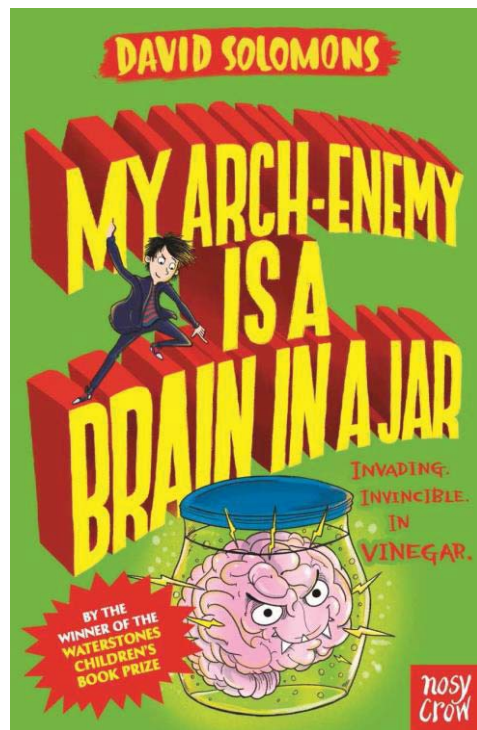

Hannah graduated from Camberwell College of Arts in 2006 with a BA (Hons) degree in Illustration and works as a freelance illustrator.

Luke has superpowers! But only because he's swapped bodies with his brother by accident. Freaky!

- The fourth in the hilarious, award-winning and bestselling series – over 165,000 copies sold to date! (TCM)
- My Brother is a Superhero won the Waterstones Children's Book Prize and BIA Children's Book of the Year 2016
- David Solomons is a meteoric new voice in children's fiction
- The 70s themes will be popular with parents and children alike

Extract:

My brother is a superhero, and I am my brother.

Somewhere on the way back from a parallel Earth, Zack and I had swapped bodies. My eleven-year-old mind was in his fourteen-year-old body, and vice versa. I shuddered at the thought. I didn't even like wearing his hand-me-down trousers, so to think that I was in his actual skin? Yeuch.

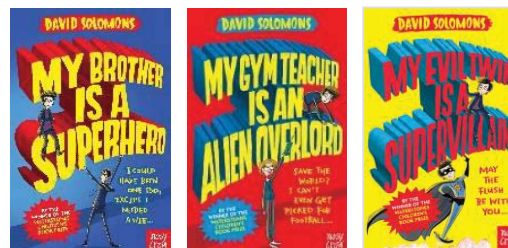

Description:

Luke and Zack swapped bodies at the end of their previous adventure and now they have to live with the consequences. Luke finally has the superpowers he craves, but at what price? GCSE physics, that's what. And then along comes a brain in a jar trying to destroy him. Luke didn't realise being a superhero was so much work...

Editor says:

"Nothing cheers me up like a new Solomons. And this one does not disappoint. Laughs, but proper emotional heft too. Brilliant."

When your best friend is a unicorn, magical adventures are guaranteed!

- Unicorns are incredibly popular and these unicorns are uniquely beautiful, super-magical, have individual personalities and powers, can talk and are ready for adventure!
- Magical adventures at Unicorn Academy, where students are paired with their very own talking unicorn
- Sparkly and beautiful with real adventures, illustrated throughout by Lucy Truman.
- Full of beautiful illustrations these are ideal first chapter books for unicorn fans!

Description:

Imagine a school where you meet your own unicorn and have amazing adventures together! That's what happens for the girls at Unicorn Academy on beautiful Unicorn Island.

Isabel and Cloud are finding it hard to get along. Isabel is impetuous and hasty, and Cloud is more cautious and (Isabel thinks) dull. But when they go off on a thrilling adventure along the coast of Unicorn Island, the two become firm friends in the face of terrible danger!

Editor says:

"Unicorn fans everywhere will flip out over how beautiful, magical, sparkly and awesome these books are! With a different girl and unicorn partnership in each story, this hugely collectable series will run and run – over a glittery rainbow, of course."

Julie Sykes

Lives in: Hampshire
 As a child, Julie was always telling tales. Not the "she ate all the cake" sort, but wild and exaggerated tales of everyday events. Julie still loves stories and has written over 70 books published worldwide. Julie lives in Hampshire in an old cottage with her family and a white wolf cunningly disguised as a dog. When she's not writing she likes eating cake, reading and walking, often at the same time.

Lucy Truman

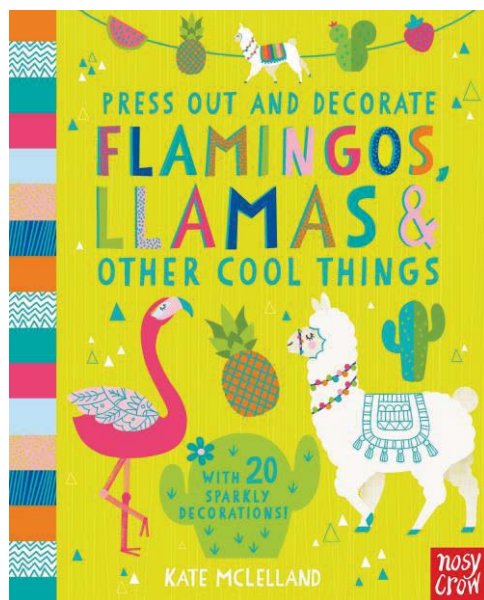

Since graduating from Loughborough University with a degree in illustration, Lucy has become one of the UK's leading commercial illustrators. Most recently her inspiration has come from the very funny little people in her own life, including family holidays with her nephew as well as her own children. People watching is a huge source of help, and also very entertaining.

Want to travel in a rocket?

Search for a grumpy dragon?

Make your very own monster?

Visit a higgledy-piggledy farm?

Well, hop into Zim Zam Zoom – for fun and adventures galore!

Colours, animals, space, music, fairytale fireworks...! Here is a collection of poems especially written for performance. With delightful illustrations by a talented new illustrator, this is a brilliant introduction to poetry for young children.

- Shortlisted for the CLiPPA 2017
- "Beautiful book, wonderful words, lovely illustrations. Buy it." - Poetry Zone
- "There is Roger McGough, there is Michael Rosen and here is James Carter bringing bright, lively words to children." - IBBY Link
- "The sort of poetry book that kids can't resist. I've always held the opinion that funny poetry just BEGS to be read out loud (in as silly a voice as possible) and this book was a true treat." - Read It Dadd

Author Information

James Carter is a prize-winning poet, guitarist and educational writer. He travels all over the UK to give poetry performances and workshops, and is the author many best-selling poetry books including Hey Little Bug! and I'm a Little Alien. James Carter lives in Wallingford, Oxfordshire.

Nicola Colton is an Irish illustrator living in Bristol. Her style is whimsical with an emphasis on colour and she likes to create characters full of warmth, humour and playfulness. She is passionate about children's illustration and her first picture book was awarded a White Raven by the International Youth Library and won the Literacy Association Ireland book Award.

Pattan's Pumpkin

An Indian Flood Story

Chitra Soundar, illustrated by Frané Lessac

An exciting, vibrantly illustrated Flood Story from India

Pattan has an amazing pumpkin... it grows BIGGER than the goats, BIGGER than the elephants, until it is as TALL as the mountains.

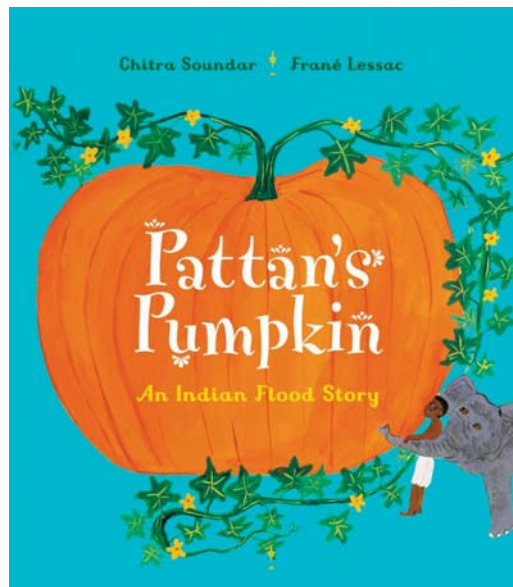

But can Pattan's pumpkin save his family and all the animals when the storm-clouds burst and the waters rise?

- "This picture book is a visual delight with vibrant illustrations and an appealingly childlike painterly style richly coloured and full of detail." - Books for Keeps 5-star review
- "The text is easy to read, is humorous and has a soft, gentle tone that will soothe young readers at bedtime and have them happily dozing in no time at all. A beautiful book and the perfect addition to our picture book home library." - London Mums, Book of the Week
- Selected for CLPE's Power of Reading programme

Author Information

Chitra Soundar was born and brought up in India, where traditions, festivals and mythology are a way of life. She now lives in South East London, and regularly visits schools, bookshops and libraries to tell stories and teach creative writing. She is a member of the international Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators.

Frané Lessac is an award-winning American artist who has exhibited her paintings in London, Paris, New York and Los Angeles. She lives in Freemantle, Australia, but loves to travel and to create books based on her worldwide journeys. She has published more than forty children's books throughout the world and has won many international awards. She is currently Advisor for the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators Australia West.

Line of Fire – Diary of an unknown soldier Barroux (trans. Sarah Ardizzone) With an introduction by Michael Morpurgo

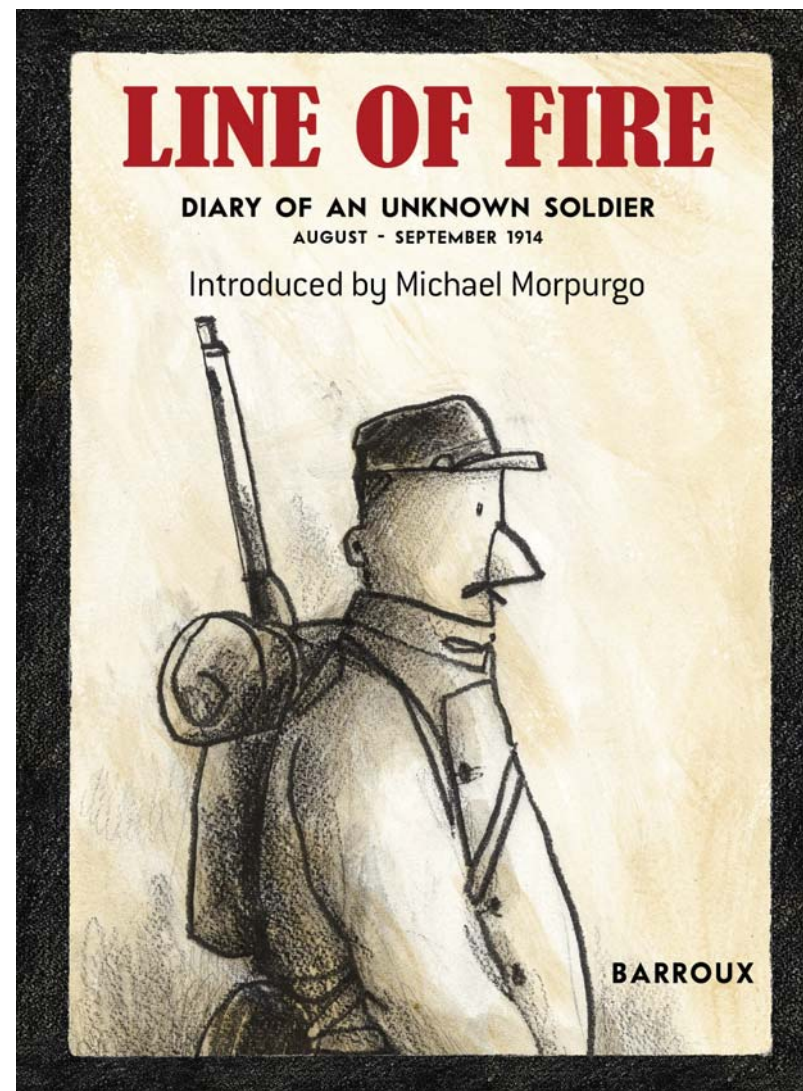

One winter morning, Barroux was walking down a street in Paris when he made an extraordinary find: the real diary of a soldier in the First World War.

Barroux rescued the diary from a rubbish heap and illustrated the soldier's words. In this striking black and white graphic novel adaptation of a 100-year-old diary, the events of the first two months of WWI are given fresh meaning and relevance to modern audiences. This is living history that has the power to engage new generations in one man's story that is silhouetted against the historical events that formed and transformed the world we live in today.

- Massive press coverage guaranteed, including a broadsheet serialisation
- Huge media campaign capitalising on public interest in WWI centenary in 2014
- Events at every public festival programme, including joint events with Michael Morpurgo
- Barroux is the illustrator in residence at Edinburgh International Book Festival 2013
- School events with Barroux and Sarah Ardizzone in public venues
- Non-final English translation available on request
- Teaching resource pack to accompany the schools edition
- Barroux's artwork will be on display museums and galleries in 2014
- Over 50,000 copies sold in France plus musical-drawing adaption to sell-out audiences

About the creators

Barroux is an established and popular illustrator in France, Canada and the USA
Michael Morpurgo, author of War Horse is one of the UK's most eminent children's authors
Sarah Ardizzone has twice won the Marsh Award for children's literature in translation

The Trilogy of Two

Juman Malouf (Illustrated By Juman Malouf)

Keynote

A highly original and acclaimed fantasy novel with eccentric characters, striking illustrations and a propulsive plot

Description

Identical twins Sonja and Charlotte are musical prodigies with extraordinary powers. Born on All-Hallows-Eve, the girls could play music before they could walk. They were found one night by Tatty, the Tattooed Lady of the circus, in a pail on her doorstep with only a note and a heart-shaped locket. They've been with Tatty ever since, roaming the Outskirts in the circus caravans, moving from place to place.

But lately, curious things have started to happen when they play their instruments. During one of their performances, the girls accidentally levitate their entire audience, drawing too much unwanted attention. Soon, ominous Enforcers come after them, and Charlotte and Sonja must embark on a perilous journey through enchanted lands in hopes of unlocking the secrets of their mysterious past.

Reviews

- 'The Trilogy of Two is full of inventiveness, with a world that's constructed ingeniously and characters who are vivid and attractive' - Philip Pullman, author of 'His Dark Materials'
- 'The world [Malouf] creates, through her appealing prose and her positively addictive illustrations, feels weird and true, vivid as a dream but way more entertaining' - Michael Chabon, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of 'The Amazing Adventures of Kavalier & Clay'
- 'A new YA novel that shuffles the teen-dystopia deck with some Narnia-style fantasy... Designer and illustrator Juman Malouf sets quite a few plates spinning in The Trilogy of Two, her first novel. She keeps it all whirling with aplomb and no broken crockery - a bit of a circus performer herself. Plus, her line drawings are exquisite' - Vanity Fair
- 'YA fiction's new spellbinder... The book's eccentric characters and the worlds-within-worlds they inhabit are richly illustrated... [Malouf's] prose is lyrical and evocative' - The Daily Beast
- 'Whimsical... Malouf shows enough talent to stand on her own where whimsy and intrigue are concerned' - TIME Magazine
- 'Fans of Mieville's Un Lun Dun will enjoy debut author Malouf's intricate worlds, each teeming with its own customs and creatures, as well as her equally intricate pencil illustrations, which highlight the characters' eccentricities... themes of sisterhood and believing in oneself will entrance readers' - Publishers Weekly

Dog

Andy Mulligan (Edited By Sarah Odedina)

Keynote

First paperback edition of this love-filled story about trust and friendship from the winner of the Guardian Children's Fiction Prize

Description

When Tom meets Spider he is sure he has found a friend for life. But their companionship does not run smoothly. Spider can't help being the naughty puppy that he is, and Tom has a lot on his plate: a new school, a bully and his parents' separation.

But both boy and dog are far braver and more determined than anyone could have imagined. And as they journey to be reunited, unbreakable bonds of love are built.

Sales Points

- Multi-award-winning and bestselling author of Trash, with thousands of fans all over the world
- A winning combination of adventure story and animal adventure: the perfect combination of an accessible literary book with fast-paced adventure at its core
- Boys and dogs and family dramas combine in this novel that will encourage young readers to marvel at the strength of friendship and rejoice in the power of love

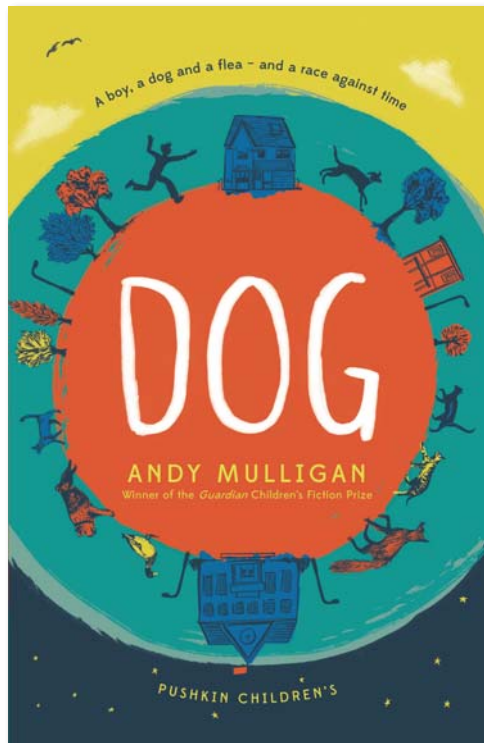

Reviews

- 'Genuinely powerful and compelling' - Nicolette Jones, Sunday Times, Children's Book of the Week
- 'Dog is deliciously clever, deceptively simple, and a proper delight to read. I loved every page' - Lucy Coats
- 'A thrilling emotional rollercoaster of a tale' - Sally Gardner
- 'I loved Dog by Andy Mulligan. Spider, a dog undergoing an identity crisis, is a wonderfully rounded hero. His efforts to do the right thing put me in mind of a kind of canine Hamlet. With its calculating cats, philosophical foxes and gormless goldfish, there is much to enjoy about this book. Highly recommended' - Gareth P Jones, author of The Thornthwaite Inheritance

Author Biography

Andy Mulligan was brought up in south London. He has taught in the Philippines, India, Brazil, Vietnam and the UK. His first novel, Ribblestrop, was shortlisted for the Roald Dahl Funny Books Prize, and his second won the Guardian Children's Fiction Prize. Trash was shortlisted for the Carnegie Medal, has been translated into 31 languages and was filmed by Stephen Daldry.
