

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me

To be a happy one

I'd like to leave an afterglow

Of smiles when life is done

I'd like to leave an echo

Whispering softly down the ways

Of happy times and laughing times

And bright and sunny days

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,

To dry before the sun

Of happy memories that I leave

When life is done

Clifford R. Lamphier was born on December 2, 1925 at the family home in Lane, Montana to Charles and Ida Mae Lamphier. The family moved to Sidney in 1942 and Cliff enlisted in the United States Army on February 23, 1944. During World War II, he was in Germany, France and Japan until he was discharged on April 27, 1946.

After the war, Cliff returned to Sidney where he met Betty Jean Schlenz. They were married on March 18, 1950 and had six children, Dwight, Gloria, LaMont, Milo, Luanne, and Tamra.

Cliff worked various jobs including employment with Holly Sugar until he was hired to deliver freight around Sidney for Burlington Northern Transfer where he worked for almost 30 years.

After his retirement, he spent his time building a log cabin home on the property he and Betty purchased back in the 50's. He did almost all of the work himself with help from his family. Cliff and Betty moved to Camas, WA in 2009.

Cliff loved his family, horses, and the wide-open spaces of Eastern Montana. Cliff and Betty ensured their children had everything they needed and created a safe and stable home instilling good values and strong work ethics. Cliff especially loved spending time with his grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Dad passed away peacefully at his home on December 12, 2014 surrounded by family and holding Mom's hand.

He is survived by his loving wife of 64 years, Betty; three sons, Dwight (Marjory) Lamphier of Lander, WY, LaMont (Marie) Lamphier of Glendive, MT, Milo (Debbie) Lamphier of Camas, WA; three daughters, Gloria (James) Sanders and Luanne (Terry) Williams both of Sidney, MT, Tamra (Jerry) Jensen of Brush Prairie, WA; 15 grandchildren; 19 great grandchildren; 1 great-great grandchild; 2 sisters, Vera Anderson of Savage, MT, and Corine Jones of Yakima, WA; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Ida Mae Lamphier; brothers, Wayne, Lloyd and Paul; and sister, Rose.

On behalf of our Dad, we would like to extend a special thank you to our Mom for taking such good care of him throughout the years. He always said he had a good life and much of that was due to Mom. You both lived the wedding vows you took all those years ago.
