HOMO LUDENS

The most rewarding, fun and effortless way to learn - is through play. Homo Ludens is Latin for "the playing man" and points out the important part fun and games bring to humankind's ability to get along, solve problems and come up with new ideas. Kids know this instinctively. Some grown-ups do too. A quote that sums it well: "The creative adult is the child who survived."

JUNGLE

Welcome back. To your wild and free origin. To nature. Lush greenery, sweet exotic jungle fruits and the eager chatter of wild monkeys set the mood. Just watch out for the tigers and black panthers so that you will live to tell your amazing stories by the campfire tonight.

GIRAFFE'S STROLL

Try the perspective and point of view from one of the world's most odd-looking and fascinating animals – the giraffe. Let your eyes wander and see what she sees during her morning stroll in this well-painted animal wallpaper.

R16792

ALLURING PANTHERS

Notice how the panthers of this wall mural look almost photorealistic? The illustration of a good artist can be really hard to distinguish from a good nature shoot, but this is all handmade.

The shape of a palm tree is characteristic and interesting. The shapes of different palm trees combined, however, stunning.

GALAXY

Space has the ability to fascinate us for life. Each generation brings us new aspiring astronauts. An amazing opportunity to connect with no age limits, since it's easy to spend time with people who share your interests. Why not build a space center of your own? Complete with telescopes and star maps.

STAR GALAXY

We know this is a wallpaper, but when you show a galaxy as stunning as this, it needs to be wallpapered on the ceiling, either in the bedroom or living room. Then lie back on your sofa or bed and relax into space.

URBAN

Being social is important. Having time, and enough chairs, are of course crucial. Create a room that makes room for what, and whom, you find important. Allow influences from urban city life, including street art and graffiti, along with the inspiration you get from your music, movies, and books. Mix it all and have fun in the process!

R16941

DRIPPING RAINBOW

---

Graffiti wall murals come in so many shapes and colors. "Dripping Rainbow" offers round shapes and smooth colors. Underneath the street art rests a solid brick wall.

CLIFF CASTLE

A good fantasy book or film almost always contains historical and dramatic environments. It just gets better with a 16th-century castle.

STAIRWAY GRAFFITI

---

We all have them. Places around the city where we normally meet up with our friends to either just sit and talk for a while or to move on to another destination together. If you are into street art, perhaps this graffiti wall mural is something for you.

CABINET OF CURIOS

Are you looking for a wall mural that sets a somewhat mysterious mood to your room? Look no further.

SCENERY

Are you fond of costume parties? Well, with the right materials – who isn't? Everything from the clothes and shoes, to the way you do your hair and makeup, is a precondition for the play and an important part of it. Let a scene with classic red drapes release the more theatrical parts of you.

SAFE HAVEN

Create your own sanctuary. This vintage wall mural with its distinct foreground and hazy dreamlike background sets the right mood.

R16821

COULISSE

Are you fascinated by the classic way of building a coulisse at the theatre? In this wall mural, we create depth in a similar way. Different layers together form a sense of depth. You see its shadows if you watch closely.

HOUSEWARMING

Make room for unleashed imagination. This surreal wallpaper shows a color-loving forest snail on the lookout for a new address.

FLORAL

Life does get more beautiful when you are surrounded by flowers. We plant them in our gardens, place them in vases around our apartment, and we won't say no to a good floral print, whether that's on the wallpaper, fabric, or even on our clothes. Flower power is an everlasting and strong inspiration. Find your favorites.

DEAR DANDELIONS

The often-overlooked dandelion is, in fact, a really beautiful flower. In this mural, we see its full life cycle, from a flower bud to a seed blossoming into an enchanting kaleidoscope-like pattern.

Chinoiserie mural with lush foliage of weeping willows, winding tendrils and flowers. A dreamy and luxurious art piece for your wall, painted by the talented artist, Diane Hill.

FLOWER PARADE

A hand-drawn line can feel wobbly and anxious in its character – or as doubtless and joyful as this one. All lined up, these amazing and happy flowers shine their light on you. The repeat of the wallpaper pattern is as simple and straightforward as the message – enjoy life.

SIMILARITIES

In an interesting bouquet, the flowers both match and mismatch each other. Harmonizing and challenging one another, alternately. Be inspired by the sunny yellow, dusty pink, gentle green and graphite gray flowers, in this hopeful retro wallpaper pattern.

R16691

RAINBOW

Some say that only a few carefully chosen colors will match. Others say "the more the merrier." You can also use color to unify completely different pieces of furniture and objects. The fun coloring technique dip-dye is a good example of this.

COLOR BOXES

These wooden boxes will draw attention to your wall with their cheerful colors. The black spaces in-between hint at a hidden depth. We can't help to wonder – what is in them?

Get in the water and find your place in this secret tranquil bay. The salty ocean water carries many different body types, without effort and without making a difference. Water is a forgiving and playful element, and this blue wallpaper is truly playful.

HILLTOPS

You know the facts: horizontal lines will make a room seem wider, whereas vertical lines make the room feel "taller" and more spacious. This wallpaper serves a fun twist to the classic striped wallpaper.
