PERSONAL STATEMENT

Please write your Personal Statement (i.e. a personal narrative essay) in your own hand writing (within 750 words), which offers you an opportunity to share what you consider as important in the journey of your life with us: your story, values, personal challenges, professional interests and achievements, volunteering activities and projects, and future pursuits. These narrative reflections should be written in one's own hand to showcase the person behind the resume, revealing how you think, and not just what you think.

Should you opt to share specific anecdotes from your personal/professional life, please maintain a laser focus on one/two relevant, formative experiences—academic, professional, extracurricular—which are indicative of your personal development.

For this purpose, you may like to share specific anecdotes from your personal/professional life, please maintain a laser focus on one/two relevant, formative experiences—academic, professional, extracurricular—which are indicative of your personal development. Therefore, you must identify your goals upfront before you start writing your personal statement. Please keep in mind what we are looking for in this statement:

- We want to learn more about you as a person who may have undergone a unique, transformative journey.
- We want to learn more as to how you think about the unsolved problems and challenges in your personal and professional life, and how you have so far planned/are planning their resolution.
- We want to learn what personal attributes and qualities you have sought to nurture in the past.
